THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

STATINTL

Dear Lyle:

Thank you for the telephone call you made on the occasion of my new appointment. This expression of thanks is very late in being sent to you, but I had wanted to await the completion of the confirmation and swearing-in processes before writing.

I know our future will be marked by problems and difficulties, but I think the opportunity of the future outweighs the travail and I look forward to the task. I will do the best job I can. Certainly I feel better already knowing that this great Agency has men of your capacity to help us move forward.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
